de Aryan "Inharmonious" After Putting Blame of Jail Fire Deaths on Mayor, Manager and City Council

de Aryan Fired As Raid Warden

(San Diego Union)

C. Leon de Aryan, local weekly newspaper publisher, has been dismissed as an air raid warden in the city's civilian defense set-up, it was reported at the Civic Center.

"He has been relieved of his wardenship," Walter W. Cooper, city manager, said in confirming the report. "He has been out of harmony with other members of the group. In such a volunteer group it is essential to have harmony."

Cooper said the dismissal was not based in the fact that de Aryan was a witness before the Tenney committee Feb. 19 when the committee came here to investigate un-American activities.

"de Aryan came in to see me to ask who was responsible for the dismissal," Cooper said. "I told him I was. We've got to have people in civilian defense who will work together without dissension. There were complaints about lack of harmony soon after de Aryan became a warden and before the Tenney hearing."

DE ARYAN DROPPED AS AIR-RAID WARDEN; BLAMES 'POLITICS'

(S. D. Tribunne-Sun)

Described as "out of harmony" with other members of his group, C. Leon de Aryan, publisher of a weekly paper, has been dismissed as an air-raid warden, Walter Cooper, city manager, admitted.

"In such a volunteer group it is essential to have harmony," Cooper commented.

de Aryan was a witness before a state assembly committee on un-American activities when it held a three-day hearing here last month, at which he told of having attended pro-axis rallies for purposes of observation and of having been "persecuted" by Jews. Cooper said the dismissal did not result from that, but from "complaints about lack of harmony soon after de Aryan became a warden" and before the committee hearing. .

"There was no disharmony; it was political shenanigans," de Aryan declared. "There were two complaints against me, from two men who wanted to get their own friends appointed, and one succeeded."

de Aryan said air raid sector H, in which he functioned, "south of University ave., east of Euclid ave., and west of Fifty-fourth st.," was complimented for effectiveness of blackout in a recent test.

de Aryan Asks Public Hearing

(San Diego Union)

A request for a public hearing, to bring out specific charges which led to his recent removal as an air raid warden, was filed with the city council by C. Leon de Aryan, weekly newspaper publisher.

"This incident," de Aryan wrote, "has been seized upon by a self-appointed defamation committee of my character as another 'evidence' of my alleged subversive activities and disloyalty to the U. S. A., and it has been used against me to besmear my good name."

Walter Cooper, city manager, said the publisher was removed for the good of the volunteer service. de Aryan asked that he be confronted "with my accusers" and that charges be presented "proving my inability to work 'harmoniously' for civilian defense."

"I wish to state at this time that my successor is doing a better job than I possibly could have done, since he is younger, has more time and energy to devote to it. There exists no resentment on my part for having yielded the task to him; on the contrary, I am glad, seeing the good work he is doing," de Aryan added.

Air Raid Wardens Must not Criticise "Superiors"

To the Honorable, The Mayor,
The City Council of San Diego, California.
Gentlemen:

After creation of the Office of Civilian Defense, headed by Mrs. Roosevelt and Mayor LaGuardia, it so happened that I also was called upon to do my share as Air Raid Warden for my residential district. I accepted the responsibility in good faith and did what I could with the means at hand and the small amount of time I could devote, after doing justice to my other obligations. Out of a clear sky, without any warning, without any hearing, without any charges, specifically defined, I was requested to resign as Air Raid Warden, which I did.

This incident has been seized upon by a self-appointed defamation committee of my character, as another "evidence" of my alleged subversive activities and disloyalty to the U. S. A., and it has been used against me to besmear my good name.

I called upon the City Manager to ascertain the reason and get the specific charges, but aside from generalities that there were "complaints" by un-named persons, the City Manager considered it unnecessary to give me any information.

I, then, called upon the Mayor, who is the nominal head of the C. D. in San Diego, having been apointed by Mayor LaGuardia, since resigned, and asked him for the reasons of my forced resignation.

I wish to state at this time that my successor is doing a better job than I posssibly could have done, since he is younger, has more time and energy to devote to it. There exists no resentment on my part for having yielded the task to him, on the contrary, I am glad, seeing the good work he is doing.

But the defamation committee is leaving no stone unturned to destroy my business, reputation and recently, take my citizenship away from me. That being the case I shall reveal to you what the Mayor told me, was the reason why he, too, agreed that I should resign as Air Raid Warden. I shall repeat the conversation between us, as nearly verbatim as possible:

MAYOR—How do you expect to work in an organization, when you discredit your superiors by criticising them in your paper?

de ARYAN—You are referring to my editorial where I stated that the Chief of Police could not be held responsible for the jail fire deaths but that responsibility was with you, the City Manager and the City Council for not installing a master device for unlocking all cell-doors simultaneously.

The mayor did not deny the reference but continued to explain to me that the Civilian Defense was operated like the Army and one could not expect to "co-operate harmoniously" as long as he criticised his superiors. The Mayor recited instances where he received 15 phone calls complaining about my appointment as Air Raid Warden, so that he decided to take action.

If the Mayor or the City Manager imagine that my appointment as Air Raid Warden imposed a duty upon me to let them get away with murder as far as the 5 deaths at the city jail were concerned, I am afraid, that they have a misconception of what constitutes Civilian Morale, or Army Morale and Discipline.

The most peculiar part to this whole incident is the coincident repetition of the self-same attitude, when in 1913-14 I was having a controversy with my superior officers as to whether they were bound by the articles and regulations of war, or whether they could break them at pleasure in their relation to enlisted men. For daring to take a definite stand that they, as superior officers, were to set the example of obeying those articles and regulations of war most scrupulously, I was courtmartialed and dishonorably discharged from the army, since my superiors had the power in their hands, just as at present the Mayor and City Manager have had the power in their hands to demand my resignation as air raid warden when I "discredited them" by stating that they were chiefly responsible for the lack of a master lock system at the city jail and not the chief of police.

It is quite evident, that power placed in the hands of picayunish minds is power misplaced. We have witnessed that the army court-martialed General Billy Mitchell for telling the truth and that the President demanded the resignation of Col. Lindbergh for the same offense. But none of these incidents serve to improve either civilian or army morale or confidence in superiors who cannot stand the light of truth.

I am hereby requesting that you gentlemen take steps to give me an open hearing, confront me with my accusers and present specific charges proving my inability to work "harmoniously" for civilian defense. My loyalty and my good name have been placed in a wrong light through this summary action on the part of the Mayor and the City Manager, who violated every tenet of the Anglo-Saxon code, not confronting me with the specific charges and with my accusers, or are they afraid to do so because it would backfire on them?

Sincerely yours, C. LEON de ARYAN.

de Aryan Given Hearing

(San Diego Union)

C. Leon de Aryan, weekly newspaper publisher, asked—and received—a hearing before the city council, but his remarks, by council vote, were limited to two minutes.

Walter Cooper, city manager, recently dismissed the publisher as an air-raid warden "for the good of the volunteer service". In a bristling letter to the council, de Aryan attacked Mayor P. J. Benbough and Cooper, requested that he be confronted by his accusers and with specific charges, and asked a public hearing.

At the "hearing", de Aryan denied vigorously there was any "inharmony" in the volunteer set-up in his district. The council, except to argue whether or not it should grant the publisher a hearing, made no comment and directed that de Aryan's letter be filed.

At the request of Mayor P. J. Benbough, Councilman Harley Knox, vice mayor, took the gavel when de Aryan's letter came up for action. The mayor explained that as he was criticized in the letter, he did not want to put de Aryan at any disadvantage by presiding.

Editor's Note:— Mayor Benbough did not deny, take exception or "clarify" de Aryan's quoted conversation with the Mayor.

All one harmony, delight.

To this life I now aspire,
To become His faithful heir.

America and Americanism

(Friday 8:45 pm, KGB, March 27)

In these days when we hear so much about America and Americanism it is timely to remember the words of Walt Whitman: " . . This America is only you and me". What is there about you and me that makes us different as Americans from the rest of the world? I'll tell you.

It is our objectiveness in matters of common concern and our subjectiveness in matters of individual decisions. .

People who obey reason, exercise intelligence and practice equity in their dealings with others, are not people easily given to hatreds and ruled by prejudices. In this country we, as Americans, have been fair to all the world. We saw the intrigues going on in the world and did not fall for the catch phrases of propaganda in place of truth. This objectiveness and willingness to give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt and treat him as we would like to be treated, this is what makes us as Americans an outstanding people. We incorporated that spirit in our Constitution and that is why the Constitution can never be outdated, that is why it survives the horse and buggy age and I prophesy, whether you believe it or not, that the U. S. Constitution will survive the New Deal and be the law of the land long after the New Deal has been forgotten.

The subjective characteristic of you and me, as Americans, is our ability to reach our own decisions and follow them up in practice with appropriate action. We are not a regimented people, not standardized from the craddle to the grave. We are individuals, have our own minds and we want to make our own decisions. This, too, has been incorporated into our Constitution. The individual citizen has God-given and unalienable rights which the government is not only bound to respect but bound to protect. It places the individual's sovereignity above the collectivity. While the majority rules, it rules only in secondary matters. In primary instances the Constitution prevails to insure the God-given rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of hapiness, which means property rights. This subjective liberty where a person is free to do his own thinking and come to his own conclusions, is free to express his subjective opinions and compare them with others and argue about it to his heart's content, ready to yield to the truth but unwilling to submit to tyranny and despotism, this is the liberty which makes progress possible. This spiritual liberty is of grater value than life itself, without that opportunity; for without spiritual liberty man is nothing but a beast of burden; he will slave and pay taxes, pay rent, eat and sleep, but he is a prisoner all his life. To gain this liberty all the processes of nature conspire to drive him on and on and give man no rest till he has achieved it.

"You and me", we can lay no claim to being Americans, unless we posses, exercise and perpetuate this liberty as an example to the rest of the world that they may pattern after us. And to bestow this liberty upon posterity, upon our children and children's children, no price is too high, no sacrifice too big. May we all be Americans in this spirit as our Founding Fathers were.

The Four Freedoms

WASHINGTON,—May heaven save Douglas MacArthur from his loving friends!

The Australian request for his services as the clock of doom registers the 11th hour and the 59th minute tends to make him personally responsible for what the President says is—"everything from here to Singapore". This is all messed up with some kind of British empire politics involving Mr. Curtin and Mr. Churhill. .

On top of this some little American groups are forming under the slogan "MacArthur for President", which tend to push him, willy-nilly, into American politics..

The tendency of all this is to entangle our feet more deeply in some kind of war mess involving as it now begins to appear, conflicting and very complex wishes or aspirations of Britain, Australia, Canada and perhaps India.

Even as a loyal selfless ally we can't be altogether under British tutelage. We can't submerge the whole of our interests or accept responsibilities for matters which we do not and cannot control.

India and China both apparently feel entitled to independence if the war is won and if they help to win it. Indeed, if the "four freedoms" meant anything they must have meant something like that.

Yet if the war is won, will Britain be content to see such a subdivision of the empire? And if she be not content, are we at last to learn that we have been fighting and sacrificing to give the Malayans back to the Dutch, the East Indians to the English and the Chinese to their semi-sovereignty under alien concessions.

Example of American

Hon. Francis J. Biidle,
U. S. Attorney General,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—

I have just learned that attempts are being made to cancel the citizenship of Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, Editor of The Broom, San Diego.

In my opinion this would be a tragedy, not for Mr. de Aryan, but for America.

I have known de Aryan for over 12 years. During that time he has preached more real Americanism than any Editor that I know of, in the United States.

Thugs and Crooks have naturally fought him, because from his first issue of the "Broom", he has been their nemesis.

This letter has been written voluntarily, without the knowledge of or consent of Mr. de-Aryan.

I have not always agreed with the Editor of the Broom, but I do agree now, that instead of seeking to cancel his citizenship, he should be used as an example as to what a real, true American should stand for.

Cordially yours,
GEORGE O. MacGREGOR.

Fear Not ! . . . God is here, there is none mightier.

Plutocracy's Cunning

Hon. Francis J. Biddle, etc.

My dear Sir:—

In RE Revocation of Naturalization C. Leon de Aryan.

The Constitution of the United States of America, you will quote Article 14. Sec. 1. on citizenship, "All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State where they reside." The undersigned trusts your great Office will not lean from the provisions of this protective clause.

His personal opinions and the uncut words he uses in expressing them are fully protected by the after-thought of our Founding Fathers, known as Amendments, Article 1 and Sec. 1. "Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech or the press". Under the pressure of the above, California was required and did establish in Art. 1. Sec. 9 "Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the use of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or press."

Now there is set in motion a clever maneuver to side-step the glories of our Constitutions, to deny and abridge the expression of free thought, and of a free press by the dubious stooping to remove the powers of citizenship, to wit, to try to unnaturalize that which has been legally naturalized. SHAME ! ! Is there a man with soul so dead as to do this vile act? We ask your powerful office to stop it. The act is so atrocious as to make good men blush for shame. When we who know de Aryan know that they are artificial contraptions and inventions of evil-minded men who hate the light for their deeds are evil and do not want to be reminded of them.

This is a world war and we need to be united and not separated by inconsequential harpings. You were big in your rulings in the case against Robert Noble et als but they are not on the same high level of the de Aryan case. Here is a magnificent soul, a man who loves his brother man without respect to his color, creed or any degree of servitude. But these are the men whom History has crucified. Your Office can lend one modern blow to ancient superstition, and stay its ravaging, skulking hand from the dark corners.

We feel that you will stand by the just laws mentioned above and stop the selfish interests trying to stop the development of the hoi poloi. de Aryan is a great teacher, but there are many who are loud mouthed and with much money to use against the innocent and poor people. de Aryan is not rich, but he gives food for thought to the hungry and drink of truth for the weary.

Sincerely may we look to you for aid against plutocracy's cunning of removing thorns from their flesh.

L. SABIN KENWORTHY,
1011 So. Harvard Bld., Los Angeles

Life isn't cruel. It hurts, but it heals the hurt.

Who Needs Deporting ?

The Honorable Francis Biddle,
U. S. Attorney General,
Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I am writing in behalf of my friend, Mr. C. Leon de Aryan of San Diego, California, who is editor of The Broom.

It has come to my attention that the Immigration Department in Los Angeles has intstituted an investigation with the end in view of obtaining evidence to be able to take away his citizenship and make him subject to deportation.

I have known Mr. de Aryan for many years and can truthfully say that he is one of San Diego county's very best citizens. Mr. de Aryan has always been very much opposed to the labor racketeers who have been operating in our county and for this he should be commended instead of being criticized. I spent four years at our county seat as Supervisor of our Fifth Supervisorial District of San Diego County and certainly can state without bias that Mr. de Aryan's work as publisher of The Broom is commendable in every way. Upon many occasions he has opposed me politically but he is not one of the 'rat' kind—he comes right out in the open and says what he honestly and sincerely believes.

It is my opinion that many of the persons who are trying to remove his citizenship are the very ones who need deporting and not Mr. de Aryan.

Respectfully yours,
B. A. SWEET,
Escondido, Calif.

BIDDLING vs. BUNGLING

The damnable despotism of the "new deal" is more DYNAMITIC —not dynamic—than Facism and more revolutionary than Communism:

C. Leon de Aryan, publisher of The Broom, San Diego's Crusading weekly, is again to be "investigated". It begins to appear more like de Aryan is being persecuted for his opposition to the tyranical dictatorial tactics of the "new deal". In the opinion of many San Diego businessmen de Aryan is a "better American" than many of the erratic 'errand boys' dishing up propaganda in the nation's capital.

FRIENDSHIP'S LAMENT

The Case Against Aspirin

IS IT ONLY A PAIN KILLER ?

(Concluded from last week)

"With regard to its toxicity, salicylic acid is poisonous for all classes of animals when given in doses somewhat above those in therapeutic use. In man, whose susceptibility varies greatly, death has resulted in a child from 11 grains of sodium salicylate by mouth and in adults from as little as 45 grains. These doses are not commonly dangerous. Much smaller doses may give rise to great distress if not danger, may excite acute gastritis (inflammation of the stomach) or even acute nephritis (inflamation of the kidneys) and thus prove indirectly fatal."

"The impure synthetic acid is more poisonous than the natural acid. Minute doses taken persistently over long periods as in foods, preserved by the use of salicylic acid, may set up chronic diseases of the stomach, bowel or kidney."

"Toxic poison by salicylic acid showed dyspnea (labored breathing) followed by cardiac collapse. These symptoms arise in part reflexly from the gastro-enteric (stomach and bowel) irritation and part from depression (following initial stimulation) of the cardiac and respiration centers in the medulla (brain). Death usually results from failure of respiration and is often preceded by convulsions. After death there is found hyperemia (congestion) of the brain, liver and kidneys."

"In man, the symptoms of fatal poisoning have been similar consisting of gastric disturbances, roaring in the ears and chills, associated with fall of body temperature. The pulse is weak and rapid, the respiration is shallow and panting. The pupils are dilated. There is delirium or loss of consciousness, ending in coma. Treatment consists in lavage of the stomach or administration of emetics."

"Although such severe indications are rarely seen, a milder form of poisoning known as salicylism is quite common and might even be said to affect almost every one who takes the drug in full therapeutic dose. The phenomena may follow one or more large doses or the continued use of small amounts in the majority of adults. Salicylism does not occur under the influence of less than 20 grains of salicylic acid and usually much more is tolerated."

"Many persons exhibit an idiosyncrasy to the drug and show disagreeable effects from doses of as small as 4 grains (less than one aspirin tablet) or even less. Persons with acute articular rheumatism on the other hand often bear exceedingly large quantities. It is known that the drug is drawn to the joints when these are inflammed and this may account for the lessened action on other parts."

"The symptoms most often complained of are digestive disturbances and illness, with headache and roaring in the ears associated with deafness and occasionally with dimness of vision. Nausea and vomiting may be the chief symptoms but more commonly the most distressing condition is a sense of heaviness in the head. The deafness is likely to last longer than the other symptoms but is likely to pass off in a few days at the most. In a few exceptional occasions, it has been permanent."

"The synthetic substitutes lead to acute indigestion, although they produce salicylism. Certain of them such as aspirin are constantly and frequently used by the laiety. Aspirin, although commonly well borne in moderate doses is distinctly depressing to the heart. Great cardiac (heart) weakness and tendency to collapse may follow the administration of a dose representing less than half the quantity of sodium salicylate, previously and subsequently well borne by the same patient."

"Children are particularly subject to this cardiac depression; thus in a girl of 12 years, with scarlational arthritis, alarming symptoms were caused by 9 grains of aspirin (less than 2 tablets) given in the course of 15 hours, although there was no evidence of endocarditis (inflammation of inner lining of heart) or pericarditis (inflammation of outer lining of heart) and recovery of cardiac vigor ensued on withdrawal of the drug. The cardiac depression may not be immediately evident but continued resort to aspirin may so weaken the heart that in an emergency or under the additional depresssion of acute influenza or pneumonia, it fails to respond. Death may thus be an indirect effect of aspirin poisoning. Moreover, an aspirin habit is easily set up by its use for relief of recurring headaches and neuralgic pains."

"The salicylates all tend to produce nausea and vomiting. Individuals differ greatly as to gastric tolerance of medicinal doses of salicylic acid. Some stomachs are exceedingly sensitive even to small doses in dilute solution. In most persons, doses of 15 grains (3 tablets) of aspirin or more in solution will excite epigastric uneasiness and if renewed two or three times, it will soon provoke burning of the throat and stomach, nausea and vomiting, perhaps diarrhea, while a larger daily quantity divided into doses of 5 to 8 grains each may have no unpleasant effect."

"As salicylic acid retards both gastric and intestinal digestion, probably by an anti-fermentative action, it should not be given with an ordinary meal."

"Chronic salicylism may be manifested only by nervous depression and is often difficult of recognition.

"Aspirin's ingredient sodium salicylate is a choregogue (a liver stimulant). The fluid elements of the bile are poured out in greater degree than the solids and thus not only is the quantity augmented but also the consistence is reduced. (This action may make the use of aspirin one of the causes of gal stones.) The total excretion of water by the kidneys is lessened under continued doses. This is often compensated by sweating but frequently there is an accumulation of water in the body leading to edema." (End of Solis-Cohen and Githens quotations).

The records show that in 1937 the American people consumed over 2,000 tons of aspirin to deaden the pains in their bodies arising from various causes, including bad living habits and the use of vaccines and serums.

Compulsory Military Training

SAN FRANCISCO,— Speaker Gordon Garland wrote Governor Olson urging him to call a special session of the Legislature at the earliest possible moment to consider:

1.. Repeal of the State Income Tax and a reduction of all other forms of taxation;

2. A full and complete review of the State Guard problem in the light of present conditions;

3. Recognition of the meritorious work of the volunteer Air Raid Warden personnel by providing limited authority and needed equipment, and providing compensation insurance for Wardens;

4. New legislation eliminating the red tape and excessive costs in connection with obtaining birth certificates;

5.. Strengthening California's anti-sabotage laws and

6: New legislation making military training compulsory in the State's high schools and colleges.

THE UGLY TRUTH

"The ugly truth is that we went into the first World War to save the house of Morgan from a four hundred million dollar overdraft by Great Britain. Out of the first five hundred million dollars worth of Liberty bonds we bought, four hundred million went to Morgan. I challenge Mr. Morgan to deny that statement. Now history is repeating itself. If we are taken into war, it will not be to spread the four freedoms to all the world, but to save this international banking clique from annihilation."—Former Representative William Lemke, North Dakota, in addres at Bloomington, Illinois.

BIRMINGHAM— John Temple Graves, of the Age-Herald, conducted a symposium to learn why the South was more warlike and more interventionist than any other section. Carter Glass replied. "Because of superior character and exceptional understanding of the problem involved." Stark Young thought it was because Nazi methods of invasion and destruction reminded the South of Sherman's march to the sea. Clark Howell, of the Atlanta Constitution, said: "We have once been invaded and defeated, and have learned just what this means." Jonathan Daniels' theory is that the South, as the country's poorest region, has more have-nots and that have-not people are quicker to fight than have people.

Letters To Gladys

THE COSMIC PLANNERS

Dear Gladys:

You have struck a cord deep down in my own being, when you asked me to explain the present world conflict and what to expect of it. Those of us who know what is going on and why, are in the position of the professor of higher mathematics who is to explain calculus to the class that does not even master Algebra.

I shall outline the fundamentals and you will have to do your own thinking by applying logic and the rules of sequence. That is as plain as I can make it at present.

As you perhaps remember, before these planetary systems materialized, the Elohim of the Bible, or Creators, had a big pow-wow at which all awakened entities participated, where the plan for the future universe was discussed in its fundamental details, the rules laid down and the pledges taken of the volunteer workers who were to materialize the new worlds according to specifications. Naturally, when the matter concerning the planet Earth came up, all the phases of human involution, evolution and perfection of the various races and nations was detailed. The relationship of the various groups to each other was determined and how best to bring about OBEDIENCE to Divine Intelligence which guided the minds of the Elohim in evolving the Plan of Creation. Therefore there is a very definite demarkation between races and nations and the territory they are to occupy in conjunction with the Providential provisions of the ORIGINAL Plan. Also what the interrelations are to be among the individuals in the various nations and races, as well as their attitude toward one another.

Modern materialistic science is slowly defining the laws of nature as far as an-organic matter is concerned, while it is not yet subordinate to individualized agents. That means that a modern scientist, socalled, will tell you all about the law of gravity, of action and re-action, of planetary movements of masses of globular and nebular matter, of chemistry, electricity, ether, etc.—but when it comes to dealing with bio-organic matter which has evolved into cellular activity our "scientists" are completely at a loss. Their predicament is best stated by this example: "You can lead the horse to water but you cannot make him drink". The horse has a mind of his own, so has the plant, the insect, the animal, even the microbe and last, but not least: MAN.

"Science" knows the rules of mechanical and mineralo-chemical activity but does not know the rules of bio-organism. It guesses in biochemistry, it vivisects and experiments, tortures and maims, kills and poisons, but is as completely in the dark today as it was in the days of the voodoo-medicine man! And for the selfsame reason.

Therefore, while the unwritten law forbids intermarriage between members of various races, while the Mosaic and some state laws forbid such intermarriage, the process of Eurasiation and Afro-Eurasiation continues. Which means that elements that are entirely antagonistic to each other are assembled in individual bio-organism which thereafter, in the shape of human beings, are eternally restless, attempting to run in three and four different directions at the same time, thus accomplishing nothing and wasting time, substance and energies in futile destruction.

According to original plans there are terrestial regions reserved for the evolution of each particular race and as it appears upon the planet to claim its providentially reserved habitat, the other races are supposed to migrate to their own reservations and not interfer. In this fashion, then, each will discover that long before MAN appeared upon the planet the question of usage of its natural resources had been solved and determined.

For example: It was never intended that colored people be settled in the regions now comprising the U. S. A. — But we saw that our people "opened up" Japan and henceforth Mongolians spread even into our country to "learn our ways" of what is misnamed "civilization". Too late did men, like Senator Johnson from California and others, attempt to restrict such immigration. Now an adjustment to original boundaries of the yellow and white races is in process of being worked out by brutal force.

Those who know the outlines of the ORIGINAL Plan of the Elohim also know the outcome of this war, for it will last till the FIRST plan will be LAST-ly incorporated in the treaty of peace to follow.

A most peculiar phenomenon which none but students of bio-chemistry in its relation to mental and spiritual processes can follow, is the fact that Mongolization proceeded in various ways not apparent to the average mind.

People who are fundamentally Mongols, if one traces their lineage, have been admitted to equality with Caucasians. This Eurasian and Afro-Asian influx has created conditions that jeopardize the individualistic, sovereign ideology of the true American who considers himself king and sovereign, while he admits his fellow American to the same prerogatives, thereby establishing a new relationship upon earth, that of Royal democracy. Every citizen a sovereign as an individual, with inalienable rights and prerogatives, but collectively, none above the other, not even the state above the inalienable sovereign rights of the individual, as embodied in the U. S. Constituiton..

This concept of individual sovereignity, above the collectivity, is alien and unknown to Mongols and Afro-Asiatics, or even to Eurasians. Their concept is subordination of the individual to the collectivity. This contrast and conflict is now being exemplified and worked out in these U. S. during this emergency. As long as the collectivists hold the key-positions, the individualists, of course, cannot assert the purely American doctrine of individual inalienable rights of the sovereign American citizen.

There are the two problems confronting us today, internally and externally. Those who adhere to the fundamental INTELLIGENCE of the Elohim as embodied in the ORIGINAL Plan of Providence, can tell exactly what the outcome of the present struggle is going to be. It is governed by immutable law as is an-organic matter. As the astronomer can predict the next equinox, so can the initiate foretell the outcome of this double conflict. The Law of the Cosmos is the WILL of the Lord against which no mortals can prevail.

Sincerely yours, as always,
KOSTI.

BOOK REVIEW

NATURE — THE HEALER
By John T. Richter
Review by Ye Editor

When I was in Los Angeles several weeks ago and spoke to a group who assembled at the Richter Raw Food Cafeteria, Mrs. Richter insisted that I take her husband's book along, for review. Since I had a friend in mind to whom I wished to make a present of such a valuable book, I accepted her gift gladly and now I shall tell you where you can get the book.

It is for sale at 214 So. Hill street, Los Angeles, Richter's Cafeteria. I believe the price is $1.50.

The book contains 433 pages with an index in the back. Just to give an example of the subjects treated: Abscesses, Aluminum, Arthritis, Bladder, Breathing, Change of Life, Circumcision, Courtship and Marriage, Diet for Nursing Mothers, Drugs and Drug Poisoning, Eyes, Fainting Spells, Rabies, Ruptures, Vaccination, Vitamins, Women's Diseases —all these are only a small part of the subjects discussed in the light of natural treatment and healing.

Lest let's take the example from the Chapter on FOOD COMBINATIONS.

Q. What do you mean by "blending" a salad?

A. Drink a glass of lemonade, then a glass of milk, and you will certainly have a stomach ache. That is because blending is trying to take place in the stomach. Some kind of harmony will come, finally, but it is going to kick up a fuss first. That is colic. However take the same lemonade and milk, pour them together in the air, let them blend before drinking, and they will not hurt you. I do not recommend milk, however, because it is a ferment and a natural culture for all forms of aerial bacteria and bacilli.

Liquids blend almost instantly. With other foods, such as lettuce and tomatoes, blending goes on slowly. You must blend these, because tomatoes are a fruit and lettuce is a vegetable. Of course, you can eat them together at once, but you will not feel just right afterwards. Cube the tomatoes, chop the lettuce medium fine, mix well, and let stand for an hour. That is blended salad.

Q. May all live foods be combined?

A. Be more careful when mixing live foods than cooked foods, because it makes no difference how you mix cooked foods, since they are inactive substances anyway, but natural foods have living properties. Fruits and nuts both grow on trees, and hence are congenial, but do not mix fruits with vegetables, unless you let them blend. Even in such a case, remember you are only tickling your palate. Try not to mix foods at all.

Q. Is it all right to eat honey with tomatoes?

A. Yes, honey may be eaten with any kind of food. Honey and oil are two things that may be eaten with any fruit, vegetable, or nut.

Q. Can a woman forty-three years of age undertake to have another baby?

A. Every "Normal" woman who has lived on natural food one hundred percent for more than two years will be able to give birth to a child, and that painlessly. Many mothers do not, however, appreciate the necessity of living one hundred percent on natural food, and think they can eat bread or drink milk in addition. There is real danger in that for the organs must be supple and strong. This is impossible when the phlegm in the body is being constantly renewed by eating even small quantities of phlegm-producing foods. Age has comparatively little to do with capacity for or ease of birth—the principal factor is the condition of the woman's body.

THE CASE AGAINST THE JEW
By Milton Mayer

The Jews of America are afraid that their number is up—if not today, then tomorrow or the next. They know that enduring hatreds are not done away with by the addition of passing hatreds . . . .

Editor's Note:— The above is taken from the SAT. EVE. POST, March 28. It states the truth. And because the Jews know that hatreds are not done away with by additional hatreds they should have better sense than to persecute the very men and women who uphold the American attitude of individualism against collectivism. How foolish the Jews are in generating and spreading anti-Semitism!

KENOSHA, Wis.,— Even war did not end a strike of 200 city employees, including all officeholders at city hall except the city manager. The strikers, members of the AFL City Employees Union, returned to work only when the labor-controlled council granted their demands for seniority, collective bargaining, civil service and no loss of pay during the strike. Their demand for the removal of City Manager LeRoy Wolfe, former teacher, lawyer, minister and carnival owner, was withdrawn. The council and city manager were backed by the central labor body, but the city's largest union, the 2500-member Simmons Company AFL local, backed the strikers in an intra-labor feud.

Patriotism as a religion is unsatisfactory because of its lack of universality. The good at which it aims is a good for one's own nation only, not for all mankind. The desires which it inspires in an Englishman are not the same as the desires which it inspires in a German. A world full of patriots may be a world full of strife. The more intensely a nation believes in its patritoism, the more fanatically indifferent it will become to the damage suffered by other nations. When once men have learnt to subordinate their own good to the good of a larger whole, there can be no valid reason for stopping short of the human race.

—Bertrand Russell.

CANADAD'S 1914-18 WAR COST

The war of 1914-18 cost Canada $900,000,000.

But the depression of 930-39 cost ten billions—eleven times as much. The war cost about 50,000 lives; but perhaps when the account is in of those whose lives are shortened by malnutrition the depression will have cost more. If one counts the thousands unborn because the putative parents could not marry, or marrying dared not bring into the world children whom they could not feed, Canada's population loss through the depresssion was far greater than through the war.

"I am homesick. Homesick for the home I never have seen
For the land where I shall look horizontally into the eyes of my fellows.
The land where men rise only to lift.
The land where equality leaves men to differ as they will.
The land where freedom is breathed in the air and courses in the blood.
Where there is nothing over a man between him and the sky.
Where the obligations of love are sought for as prizes,
And where they vary as the moon.
That land is my true country.
I am here by some sad cosmic mistake,
And I am homesick."

HEALTH-GERMS

"YOUTH" is a state of mind—not a time in life.

By George Starr White, M. D.

The following was just received from a man "somewhere in California".

Dear Doctor,

I enjoy your columns in The Broom very much, but this (last) week's issue pleased me very much, as I was bitten about fifteen times; had my clothes torn, paid for doctors' fees, tailors' fees and never got a cent from the dog owners.

Even the doctors who treated me for dog bites said biting dogs should be muzzled like horses on milk-wagons in New York City.

And if fleas on rats and coyotes cause bubonic plague, why not dogs?

And you doctors advise us to walk, which I do, but it's no pleasure, with dogs scaring a person and tearing at you. You know walking should be a healthy exercise, but it should be free from pest hindrance.

So I hope you write more on dogs and the evils, so the people will get a good education.

Please don't mention my name as some people never see your way.

Thank you sincerely.
A Regular Reader of The Broom.

BODY MECHANICS INFLUENCE HELTH

Is un-helth the result principally of mechanical or chemical errors? That is a great question. Everything in Nature seems to be governed by mechanical laws. The mechanical laws seem to regulate the chemical actions and results.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

Gravitation is the constant "pull" that holds us on this planet and that holds this planet where it is.

Gravitation acts and reacts on the fluids of the body and on the tubes that carry the fluids in the body. This is just as true with all animal life as with all vegetable life.. The circulation in the trees and all vegetable life, is controlled by gravitation and capillary attraction. If U place the end of a towel in a basin of water, U know the water will "crawl" over the side of the basin and soon will be running on the floor—drawn over by capillary attraction. Gravitation pulls the water from the towel to the floor.

Any act in clothing or habits, that upsets the natural order of mechanics governing our bodies, produces un-helth—a condition that is not helthy.

Hy heels on shoes throw the body out of line and put a strain on the muscles. The hyer the heels, the more unnatural the strain. If a building be "out of plumb", we know that it is not safe .

Nature made the muscular "guy-wires" to hold the body on the feet as they were made—heels and soles as born. Artificial heels put a terrible strain on all those "guy-ropes" of the body. That constant pull out of line produces inflammation. Inflammation brings about chemical changes. Chemical changes make the body a resort for "germs" that seek un-helthy places in which to live and multiply.

The nearer we can keep the body mechanically correct, the better our helth will be.

BIBLE STUDY

By L. SABIN KENWORTHY, B. S., D. D., LTD.
Instructor of Translators

BEARER OF THE GOOD MESSAGE

I have presented many of the Parts of Speech of the Bible in this series, now will look at the Proper Noun. The name without which no speech could be made.

Will start with the strange sectarian name, Greek name, unknown among Jews. Well how did it get in the supposed Jewish writings, which had a law against the Greek language? The Greek name "Petros" had no use prior to the first Century. It was unknown in Palestine up to a later period. Its Latin transliteration was "Petrus" and its English transliteration was "Peter". Be it well known that it is the Western name of the Oldest Student of the Master. And was interpolated in the Greek translation of the Aramaic Scriptures. Contrary to the Command "Add nothing to these writings". The violators of this Law were in Greece and Rome. It was not violated in Palestine..

The Protestant "apostle" Paul called the Student "Kafa" which comes from the Aramaic verb "kaf" signifying to bend, incline, as in a posture of prayer or other hallowed places. In 1st Cor. Paul names the old student five times as "Ka-fa" where the Greek translators transliterated it "Ke-phas". To most biblical readers the "Who is it" in these cases is bothersome. But in Galatians the Greek made Paul say, "Petros" five times. But it is worthy of note that not once in either 1 Cor. nor Gal. did Paul use the double name "Simon Peter". The only explanation of the change in Gal. to "Petros" instead of "Ka-fa" was the interpolating hand of some old Churchman in the 4th or 5th century which is disclosed in Gal. 1, 18, where interpolating hand wrote "Petron" above "Ke-phas" in different type, or script. The oldest Sinaticus MSS. has this interpolation marked. So it cannot be disputed. "Ce-phas" is not found in any of the "Four Gospels" save John 1, 42. Now Joh. 1, 41.42., O reader, is worthy of your closest attention because these are pregnant with evidence against the claims of the sectarian churches. All one needs to do is to look at the Aramaic Gospels and the changes and interpolations of their Books. Starting with verse 40 so you can see the interpolations plainly: (40) "Handra-hus the brother of Shem-gon was one of the two who heard Yocan-nan point out Yoho-shuag, and followed Him. (41) Han-dra-hus shouted: 'Both of us have found the Messiah!', on first seeing his brother Shem-gon. (42) Then he took Shem-gon to Yoho-shuag. Who introspected for him, in these words: 'You are Shem-gon, the son of Yo-nah. You are reported, 'The Prayer'."

Honest translators as Fenton and Moffatt, uncompelled by the Churches, set off in parenthesis in vs. 41 as "(which may be translated 'Christ'). Why the sub-quotes is unexplainable, or a whim. They clearly do not belong in an original manuscript—only in translations. In three places it is given: "Simon whose sur-name is Peter". Sur-name is not the baptismal for such was not used in this case, so sur-name is sir-name or the name of his father; but that was not the case either for The Master said: "Your name is Shem-gon the son of Yo-nah". Yo-nah then was his sir name.

And the epithet referred to his character or habit which was one of prayer. That is one of the old habits of the Seers, who prayed for healing and seeing, see: Gen. 20, 7. This was to be the Foundation of the Church of the Messiah. The ability to receive messages. Shem-gon signified just that. The boy from his mother's lap was psychologized so as to be a Hearer and this was what The Son of Man saw in him, as a Hearer and that he did receive the Message: which was not given to him by a man, but by God Himself, that "You are the Messiah, the son of the living God".

This message made Shem-gon happy. And it was the old way of Mo-sheh when he said: Num. 11, 29. "Mo-sheh asked him: 'Do you envy for my sake? I wish that God had made all the Helo-him's people mediums to the end that Yoho-wah would put His spirit on them'."

Mo-sheh was a hearer, that was his mother's name for him, but he was received by the King's daughter and named a Koptic name Mo-sheh with the significance of Drawn-out, on account of which no Jew in Biblical times was named after him as he did not have a Jewish name. Names were important to Jews, and no Jews in Jewish history of the Hebrew writings were named a Greek name. So Peter was not the "rock" on which the Messiah founded his church, nor the Pa-pa on which his church was founded. These are sectarian ideas; un-Scriptural. But His Church like the ancient Hebrew Spiritual Church, was founded on mediumship, or the power to hear a message from the spirit world.

Good THOUGHT
Good WORD — Good DEED

Zarathushtra

By Rev. Dr. O. Z. Ha'Nish

"Unto the Lord one day is as holy as another," still each day has its own particular purpose as "each season brings forth her own kind". We have our new moon our first quarter, our full moon and our last quarter; so we have our four seasons. Every four years we have one day added to our calendar and with it we are compelled to deduct that day from a certain date if desirous to be intact with the calendar year. We think it rather a beautiful gift of nature to have one day added to us every four years as in this way we may have our birthday so set that eventually and within the period of 1460 years we shall have completed the round of the whole calendar having had our birthday celebrated each day of the month and each month of the year. Our family proposes thus to celebrate the Zarathushtrian Day on September the nineteenth. May the day bring back to us the glorious days that were and remind us more than ever of the close tie existing between one and all of our royal kind and kin. May we feel the spirit of all the Saints and Sages, Saviours and Redeemers, Gods and Goddesses, shower upon us in abundance calling forth the hidden talents and cause us to grow and gain in the wisdom and understanding of God and man, that we may walk the lane of life with ease and enjoy the treasures of this earth.

As we take a backward glance down the stream of time to the very dawn of civilization the one thought that impresses the mind is that of the World's great Saviours, Masters, Sages, Priests and Prophets and the enlightenment education and understanding which they poured out so voluminously through their boundless storehouse of inspirations and revelations.

What does not the world owe to these illustrious beings who travelled the hot desert sands of irresponsive undeveloped soil! Who battled with the opposing elements of time struggling through the black midnight darkness of ignorance and superstition, yielding up even life itself that ages hence the world might enjoy the fruit of their labours; thus we behold these matchless ones, holding aloft the pure white Banner of Peace—God's Torch-light of Eternal Truth.

Following the family lineage of "royal descent", we discover Zarathushtra—The Holy One as the Great Light Bearer of the Ancient of Days—Zarathushtra, progenitor of the White Race, through whose signal and unfailing efforts is to come forth the Race Transparent. Zarathushtra Illustrious Expounder of the pure faith. Transmitter of the Living Word of God—He it was who simplified the complexity of Science, Philosophy, Sociology and Religion into the triune principle of Good Thought, Good Word, Good Deed.

The wise of the world may delve, seek and search but they will never find a more perfect rule to which the individual life may conform. Is it not time that the world awakens; that it thinks and reflects upon the great debt it owes to this Ancient Father, the light of whose torch still sheds its effulgence over a world of rebellious people.

"de Aryan Comments"

(Friday 8:45 pm, KGB, March 27)

A news item from Washington informs us that Atty Gen. Biddle announced that at least 30 actions would be begun promptly to take away the citizenship of persons believed to have been loyal to axis countries at the time they took their oath of citizenship and that "several hundred" such cases would follow.

This explains now why I was called for investigation before the Jack Tenney committee on un-American activities and was quizzed about my presence at German-American Bund meetings. Those who had decided to take steps and invalidate my citizenship, evidently, have inside information about plans that were initiated in the Department of Justice, so they slipped my name to the Jack Tenney committee in hope that some evidence could be produced to connect me up with the Bund, as a member, or perhaps at least as a sympathizer, to create the impression that I took my oath of allegiance with reservations, being at heart a Hitlerite or some such thing. That explains now why Los Angeles immigration inspectors were set on my trail to dig up additional evidence. It is remarkable that Jack Tenney never asked me who else was at those bund meetings. I could have told him that not only was every reporter of the daily press there, but besides that prominent Legion members as well as Communists were there in large numbers. Some of the Communists even started beating me up when I left the meeting and only interference of some Legionaries and others that prevented worse to happen.

The remarkable thing of such persecution is that this is not Russia nor Germany. The public's re-action to such outrages is not favorable and instead of hurting me in the public esteem such persecution builds me up. You have read in the papers what various prominent men said about me in their letters which they wrote to Atty Gen. Biddle concerning my character. I fully appreciate the marvelous testimonials they gave me. In times like these it shows what people really think of my work in this community. I am deeply grateful for such expression of sentiment and I am well aware that in the main it is not so much a tribute to me personally, but that the writers of those letters are taking their public stand for the Republic, actually they are defending the Constitution of the U. S. while I am merely incidental to it. They realize that what is attempted against me is the beginning of the end of constitutional government in individual cases and so they are standing for the Republic which they defend when they defend my rights to a fair treatment at the hands of the Department of Justice. I am proud that in times of emergency we have so many public spirited men in our San Diego who dare defy the prejudice and the hatreds that are being generated against me and against men of my type, who are not afarid to call a spade a spade and take the consequences.
